

MUST SEE AND DO

- Discover Cape Byron Headland Reserve, the easternmost point in Australia
- Visit the Byron Bay markets
- Hire a boat and explore the Brunswick River
- Take a scenic stroll to the Cape Byron Lighthouse
- Stroll along the forest boardwalk in Victoria Park Nature Reserve, Ballina

Byron Bay is a unique seaside village with a relaxed, alternative lifestyle and clean, undeveloped beaches. For a taste of the region's fresh gourmet produce, local crafts and eclectic atmosphere, head to the local markets held on the first Sunday of each month. Enjoy a walk to Cape Byron Lighthouse and be rewarded with views back over the bay.

Around ten minutes drive north of Byron Bay is Brunswick Heads. Renowned for its emphasis on water sports, the coastal town has a welcoming and relaxed atmosphere.

Further south is Lennox Head, a quiet seaside village nestled between Ballina and Byron Bay – popular for its fantastic surf beaches, great fishing and laid-back lifestyle.

Take a 20 minute scenic drive from Byron Bay to Ballina – pristine white sand beaches, great fishing and surfing and easy access to the scenic countryside await you.

Yamba is a dynamic holiday resort with an emphasis on fishing. A popular destination for families with its safe sheltered beaches, and there's also a great surf beach for those that prefer waves.
