

LORD HOWE ISLAND

Lord Howe Island is a place of extraordinary contrasts, with rugged volcanic peaks, lush forests and serene lagoons. Encircled by the southern-most coral reef in the world, Lord Howe Island was inscribed on the UNESCO World Heritage List in 1982.

To preserve the natural and precious beauty of this special environment, visitor numbers are restricted by law to 400 at any one time and just 280 people are lucky enough to call the island home.

An easy two hour flight from Sydney or Brisbane, Lord Howe Island provides the perfect holiday paradise. Walk the delightful trails through palm and banyan forests, emerging at spectacular cliff-top vistas. For the adventurous, there are challenging hikes to tackle and some of the Pacific's best dive sites are just a short boat ride away. Lord Howe is also Australia's premier bird watching destination, with over 14 species of seabirds nesting on the island.
