

Tweed Heads

MUST SEE AND DO

- Taste exotic fruits at Tropical Fruit World near Kingscliff
- Enjoy a leisurely river cruise along the Tweed River
- Explore Mount Warning National Park
- Indulge in a spa treatment at The Golden Door Spa in Salt Village
- Take a leisurely drive to Byron Bay

With an unspoilt coastline and subtropical climate the Tweed Coast is the perfect holiday destination for couples and families alike.

Tweed Heads is the northern most tip of New South Wales, with the main street linking the town with Coolangatta, Queensland. The area has great surf beaches and a beautiful river. Enjoy international entertainment at the Twin Towns Services Club and a variety of dining options.

Further south along the Tweed Coast is the seaside village of Kingscliff. Here you will find sophisticated resort style accommodation with boutique shopping and excellent leisure facilities including walking and cycling paths and parks for barbecues and picnics.

Discover the region by taking a cruise along the Tweed River or join a fishing charter. Explore the picturesque countryside, lush rainforests and World Heritage Listed national parks. Shop for a unique gift or souvenir at the Tweed Heads markets, or indulge in a spa treatment or massage at The Golden Door Spa at Salt Village, the largest day spa in Australia.

Rainforest and Northern Rivers in a Day

Travel inland through rich volcanic pastureland to enter Mt Warning National Park. Take a stroll along an elevated walkway to a viewing platform and witness some amazing scenery before continuing south to the towns Uki and Kyogle with time to explore the local arts and crafts shops. Next is Mebbin National Park with a guided walk through the sub-tropical rainforest before venturing further to Border Ranges National Park.

A relaxed day enjoying stunning scenery and travelling in air-conditioned comfort with expert commentary and delicious food.

INCLUDES:

- Morning tea
- All national park fees
- Guided walks
- Australian pub lunch
- Comprehensive commentary
- Return transfers from accommodation between Coolangatta and Kingscliff
